PA Title 35 Rewrite – PA Title 35 Sections 73 and 75 define powers and duties of state, county and local emergency management programs in Pennsylvania. This title was originally drafted in 1978 and does not reflect the state of emergency management today. Senate Resolution 177 was passed to review, update and codify Pennsylvania's emergency management services law. It is likely that emergency management will look different here in the commonwealth in the near future. The agency has been involved in the process of updating Title 35, so we are hoping to steer the update in the direction that best serves the County. The current legislative session is nearing its end, so our goal is to push this item when the next session begins.
Access and Functional Needs Registry – This is a voluntary registry the County is continuing to put together of individuals with access and functional needs (limited English proficiency, disability, needs power for medical assistive devices, etc.). The information shared goes into our damage reporting software as well as the dispatch system.
CERT – County CERT is up and running. They currently have 12 people who volunteer on the team and are accepting applications for new volunteers. We are looking to run the basic training course in the new year. The volunteer application can be found on our website www.lcdes.org.
Glenn Cannon Visionary Award – The Lebanon County Department of Emergency Services was awarded the Glenn Cannon Visionary Award at the Keystone Emergency Management Association Conference in September. This award is given to an individual, institution, or organization whose trailblazing work has positively impacted emergency management within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
